ABOUT US

OPIRG-Carleton is a campus-based not-for-profit organization, working to create and sustain student and community-based engagement through research, education, and action on social justice and environmental issues.

OPIRG-Carleton uses an anti-oppression framework, consensus-based decision making processes, operates in a non-hierarchical setting, and supports multiple Working Groups that struggle for social change.

OPIRG-Carleton was founded in 1980, after a lecture by consumer advocate Ralph Nader. In a referendum in the following year, the majority of Carleton students voted in favour of placing a small levy on their student fees to support OPIRG.

In 1991, Carleton students again voted in support of OPIRG, agreeing to raise the amount of the levy to $6.30 for full-time students, $2.10/credit for part-time undergraduates, and $1.26 for part-time graduates.

In 2009, students once again voted in favour of OPIRG, among other campus groups, to set the levy fee in accordance with the consumer price index.

Graduate students voted to increase these fees in 2010. In the 2011-2012 term, levies reached $3.32 per full full-time semester for undergraduates, and $3.34 per full-time semester for graduates.

With this levy, all students at Carleton University are automatically members of OPIRG. While the fee is classified as non-refundable, OPIRG-Carleton continues to offer refunds to students who object to the organization.

Over the years, OPIRG-Carleton has provided students with a dynamic environment in which to apply their knowledge, passions, and energy to address issues of public concern. Many have also benefited from the training and support that OPIRG offers, the real opportunities that build leadership skills and empower students to become socially active.

Year in Brief – Organizational Developments

In 2016-2017, OPIRG-Carleton continued its commitment to research, education, and action on social justice, environment, and economic issues.

The year featured several successful programs, such as Radical Frosh, and a variety of information fairs, held in the atrium, and colloquium speakers. For the first time in many years, OPIRG-Carleton hosted a Public Interest School with financial support from the Ontario PIRG network.

In May 2016, permanent employee Angela Mooney went on parental leave and once again the organization has been priviledged to welcome new staff members. Financial and Organizational Development Coordinator Andy Crosby welcomed a new member, [baby's name] into family. As such, Andy went on leave and OPIRG hired Ashley Courchene as the new administrative coordinator in May 2017.

Samiha and Ashley have added new depth to the organization, which continues to offer space, resources, and support to both student and community groups.

In recent years, OPIRG employees staff have ensured that the organization has thrived and were pivotal in mobilizations to repel and overcome repeated challenges.

Note: OPIRG-Carleton's annual audit is completed by the auditing firm of Marcil Lavallée, who present the financial statements in full at the Annual General Meeting. While OPIRG-Carleton is not legally required to undertake a professional audit (under the Ontario Corporation's Act), and not legally required to disclose financial information as a condition of receiving levy payments (CUSA/OPIRG Fee Agreement), the organization does so to ensure proper financial management and accountability to our members. Any recommendations made by the auditors are rigourosly followed.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

OPIRG-Carleton is governed by a volunteer, non-hierarchical Board of Directors and comes to decisions through consensus. Directors are elected each year at the Annual General Meeting and generally sit for one two-year term.

The OPIRG Board of Directors is comprised of 5-9 individuals with 2/3 of the members being Carleton University students. The role of the Board is to offfer administrative support to OPIRG's projects and programming, as well as to maintain the vision of the organization, and to direct its growth.

OPIRG volunteers make the office, campus, and community a better place to be, with their commitment to justice and their work towards equality.

MUCH THANKS TO YOU ALL!!!!

EVENTS, SPEAKERS, AND PROGRAMMING

OPIRG PROJECTS

OPIRG-Carleton has a number of ongoing campus and community-oriented resources and services. These include research bursaries, Radical Frosh, Free Store, equipment loans, networking and organizational support, and much more.

OPIRG-Carleton also works in conjunction with several student-led initiatives, such as Working Groups, and the OPIRG Roots radio show. There is also an emphasis on educational initiatives, like the Colloquium Speaker Series, and the Tools for Change Workshop Series.

In the past, OPIRG has also been involved with the Oxbow Park Naturalization Project, on-campus recycling, and Garden Spot.

OPIRG BURSARIES

OPIRG-Carleton offered four bursaries in 2016-2017: the Terry Cottam Research Bursary, the Undergraduate Research Bursary, the Indigenous Student Bursary, and the International Student Bursary. They each provide $500 to a student whose research project falls within OPIRG's mandate of working on environmental, economic, or social justice issues.

These bursaries were awarded to:

- Somebody (Terry Cottom)
- Sombody (Undergrad)
- Prince Owusu (International)
- Ashley Courchene and Jordan Grey (Indigenous)

Congratulations!

ANNUAL PROGRAMMING

OPIRG-Carleton's board and staff are committed to provide annual programming that is rooted in OPIRG's mandate for research, education and action on social, environmental and economic justice issues.

RADICAL FROSH

OPIRG-Carleton hosted Radical Frosh from September 12th- 16rd, 2016. The event aimed to provide new students with an orientation on social justice and the OPIRG community. We collaborated with OPIRG-Ottawa to bring some amazing events.

(Dis)Orientation Week kicked off with an Activist Social and the week was filled with a series of workshops including Decolonization 101, Anti-Opression 101 & 201, Disability Justice. We also held multiple sessions of Indigenous History Walking Tours, in addition to hosting a music making workshop and a zine-making workshop. Rad Frosh 2016 included its grand finale concert which hosted LAL, Amanda Lowe, and the Moonfruits. Other partners included the Womyn's Centre and the Gender and Sexuality Resource Centre.

Much thanks to all of the Working Groups, organizations, and the volunteers who supported the week and made it all possible!!

TOOLS FOR CHANGE TRAINING

One of OPIRG-Carleton's chief commitments is to provide training to its members, volunteers, staff, and the community on consensus-based desicion making, strategies to oppose oppression, and other skills that lie in OPIRG's mandate. It is the hope of this organization that training in these skills will contribute to the development of strong, healthy and just movements towards progressive change, built upon relationships of consent, respect, and equality.

In 2016-17, OPIRG-

Carleton ran a series of workshops throughout the year, including our campusrenowned anti-oppression and consensus-based decision-making workshops, as well as a number of others. This workshop series is known as Tools for Change.

T4C is aimed at orienting the Carleton and Ottawa communities towards activism. All workshops provided key introductory lessons on activism and building allyships within our own communities.

Manifestations of Colonial Violence (Jan 12, 2016)

Featuring Colleen Cardinal and John Moses:

Colleen Cardinal will be speaking on the Sixties Scoop/Indigenous Child Removals, what it is, who it impacted, how it impacted and its connection to ongoing violence, racism and contemporary issues affecting Indigenous peoples today. Colleen will also be speaking on the grassroots organizing of adoptee gatherings, rallies and educational awareness being done by the National Indigenous Survivors of Child Welfare.

John Moses will be speaking on his late father Russ's residential school memoir, written in 1965. This memoir recounts the conditions his father endured at the Mohawk Institute Indian Residential School in Brantford Ontario, which he attended from 1942-1947.

Other Highlights

Israeli Apartheid Week (March 13 - 26, 2017):

IAW seeks to raise awareness about Israel's apartheid policies towards the Palestinians and to build support for the growing Boycott, Divestment, and Sanctions (BDS) movement against Israel. Inspired by the ongoing popular resistance across historic Palestine and the intersections being made globally between various struggles with Palestine, we hope to make Israeli Apartheid Week 2017 a powerful contribution to the Palestinian struggle for freedom and justice.

DONATIONS

Every year OPIRG-Carleton receives requests for donations from various campus and community groups. Or sometimes the organization pro-actively donates, as is the case with our annual contribution to CKCU 93.1 FM. In 2016-17, OPIRG-Carleton donated almost $X,XXX to the following:

MEMBERSHIP / SUPPORT

CAMPUS UNITED

A group comprised of representatives groups that make up the university, from workers, to students, to organizations and unions. This group meets as needed to address campus wide issues such as contract negotiations, tuition fees, campus safety, and the Carleton Administration.

OPIRG PROVINCIAL

OPIRG-Carleton is a member of Ontario PIRG. OPIRG Provincial is comprised of eleven autonomous, non-profit, university student-funded and directed organizations that conduct research, education, and action on social and environmental justice issues. http://www.opirg.org/

OPIRG ROOTS RADIO

OPIRG Roots Radio on CKCU 93.1 FM covers social justice issues on campus and in the larger community, themed broadly along the activism that OPIRG's Working Groups are engaged in.

The show airs every 2nd Tuesday during the noon hour slot. The overall goal is to engage with Carleton students and the broader community to not only inform of social justice initiatives, but to create dialogue and get people actively engaged in movements for social justice.

Contact: opirgonckcu@gmail.com

WORKING GROUPS

Working Groups are collectives - groups of people who voluntarily agree to work together on a common issue towards a common goal while sharing responsibilities and decisions equally. Together with our volunteers, PIRG Working Groups are the heart of our organization. Working Groups with OPIRG are provided access to the office and office resources, a small budget and training.

WORKING GROUP DESCRIPTIONS

$15 and Fairness

The Ontario government is reviewing our outdated labour laws in 2016. Now is our chance to push back against low-wage and precarious jobs. We're demanding a $15 minimum wage; paid sick days for all workers; fair scheduling; better protections for part-time, contract, temp agency, and sub-contracted workers; and better enforcement of the law when workers' rights are violated. The movement is growing, and the time for change is now.

Contact: ottawa15andfairness@gmail.com

A Hidden Generation

A Hidden Generation is a grassroots documentary project to create awareness of the 60's scoop child welfare policies. The group seeks to inform and create a national dialogue for Indigenous and non-Indigenous people who may not otherwise be informed on how forced Canadian child welfare policies have impacted thousands of Indigenous peoples' lives.

Contact: A Hidden Generation @gmail.com

Access to Information

In recent years, ATI has published several academic and media publications resulting from ATI/FOI requests. These publications have appeared in Policing and Society, Security Dialogue, Current Sociology, Punishment and Society, Social Movement Studies, Canadian Journal of Crime and Criminal Justice, The Dominion, and The Leveller. News coverage of our research has been aired on CBC's "As It Happens", The Globe and Mail, CTV, and APTN.

Over the past year we have been working on a couple of big projects that will change the course of history.

Anti-Capitalist Front

Anti-Capitalist Front is a group of students and workers committed to reclaiming the commons on campus and beyond. We want to democratize the Carleton Board of Governors as well as move beyond it. We envision a campus democratically controlled by students and workers.

Black Like Me

Black Like Me understands that everything Black people do to survive on a daily basis in this world is not only a form of rebellion, but also an expression of freedom. As such, we are dedicated to creating spaces where we can find happiness, safety, support, and whatever else they need to live, as long as we have the energy and capacity to do so.

Contact: Facebook - Black Like Me

Books to Prisoners

The Books to Prisoners Project was initiated by OPIRG-Carleton members who were inspired by the prison activism of other OPIRGs, especially those in Montreal. Our aim is to use Ottawa community resources - namely, books - and deliver the donations to prisoners who have requested reading materials.

This project ties together research regarding prison regulations, programming, and accessibility, as well as education of the public about the current condition of our prison system, and a move towards action, in the form of getting books to the prisoners. It is a great way to become involved in Ottawa's activist community.

Contact: books2prisoners@hotmail.com

Cinema Politica

Cinema Politica aims to educate, enlighten and inspire individuals using progressive documentary films that cover a wide variety of social, political and environmental themes.

We are committed to raising awareness about pressing contemporary issues, inspiring activism in relation to these issues, and promoting independent media and political arts. In addition to screening a range of films, we also invite guest speakers to complement screenings while answering questions and facilitating discussions. The Cinema Politica network now boasts over 40 chapters across Canada and is the largest grassroots documentary film series in the country.

Contact: carleton@cinemapolitica.org

Carleton Students for Climate Justice

Carleton Students for Climate Justice (CSCJ) is a working group under OPIRG Carleton that works in solidarity with Indigenous land defenders/water protectors for environmental justice. Our goal is to foster an intersectional approach in the climate justice/environmental movement(s).

Contact: carletoncscj@gmail.com

Familites of Sisters In Spirit (FSIS)

Located on Unceded Algonquin Territory in Ottawa Families of Sisters In Spirit (FSIS) is a grassroots and completely volunteer based group dedicated to supporting families of missing and murdered Aboriginal women and girls. FSIS was created as a response to the federal governments decision to de-fund the Sisters in Spirit (SIS) initiative which was a research and policy initiative dedicated to documenting the epidemic of violence faced by Indigenous women and girls in Canada and to identify root causes of this trend and work towards solutions.

Indigenous Peoples Solidarity Movement Ottawa

The Indigenous Peoples Solidarity Movement – Ottawa (IPSMO) is a grassroots organization that directly supports indigenous peoples in diverse struggles for justice. We also work within communities to challenge the lies and half-truths about indigenous peoples and colonization that dominate Canadian society. The organization is open to both indigenous and non-indigenous people, and focuses on local and regional campaigns. As we act in solidarity with indigenous people, we build relationships where we can learn from indigenous cultures. By doing this, we can further decolonize ourselves, and so learn to better challenge the racist and colonial ideas that dominate Canadian society.

We provide support to actions and campaigns for Indigenous sovereignty, self-determination, defense of the land, environmental protection, cultural revitalization, and the honouring of treaties and agreements. Contact: ipsmo@riseup.net

InSol: Womyn of Colour Collective

InSol is a united front of multiethnic women existing at multiple ends of colonial difference. We proudly identify as a dynamic fusion of critical womyn who stand in solidarity with the transnational struggle against all forms of oppression(s). Our mmission is to take a proactive approach that fights against all forms of oppression, not limited to but including racism, colonialism, imperialism, sexism, patriarchy, ageism, ableism, heteronormativity, and classism.

Justice for Deepan

As an OPIRG- Carleton Working Group, Justice For Deepan continues to support

Deepan Budlakoti in his fight to stop his deportation, to have his conditions dropped and to have his Canadian citizenship restored. The Justice for Deepan support committee was formed in July 2013 to support Deepan Budlakoti in his quest to have his citizenship restored. Justice For Deepan rejects the Canadian state's systematic, racist policy of 'double punishment' in which im/migrants, refugees and those without status are punished twice for the same thing. Throughout our work, we have www.justicefordeepan.org www.facebook.com/JusticeForDeepanBudlakoti

consciously sought to make connections, to build links and solidarity with other social justice groups and movements in Ottawa and elsewhere, including migrant justice group No One Is Illegal.

No One Is Legal (NOII) - Ottawa

No One is Illegal Ottawa is a group of im/migrants and allies, guided by anti-oppression principles, that advocates and fights for the dignity and self-determination of all im/migrants, regardless of status.

In 2014, NOII launched the End Immigration Detention (EIDN) campaign in Ottawa to support the activities of the broader national campaign. The EIDN campaign aims to educate the public around migrant detention and to seek an end to the indefinite detention of migrant families and children.

NOII's most recent efforts revolve around making Ottawa a sanctuary city.

Ottawa Cultural Boycott of Israel

Ottawa Cultural Boycott of Israel promotes and encourages members of the arts and culture community in Ottawa to sign a pledge to boycott any performacnes in or ties to Israel.

Ottawa Network of Peers Acting for Harm Reduction

ONPAHR is a grassroots organization of current and former drug users who have come together from all different walks of life after realizing there was a need for geniune and transparent advocacy in Ottawa. We are advocating for safer harm reduction practices while reaching out to at-risk populations and better quality of life for the marginalized community in Ottawa

ROOTS (Recognizing Ones Origins and Transfering Strength)

ROOTS is an Ottawa-based organization for Black Afro-Caribbean youth of the diaspora to unlearn oppressive ideologies, relearn out hidden and misplaced histories, indigenize our experiences and promote and share our cultures while creating a network amongst members of our community that brings us closer together.

Stop Windmill

We are a group of community activists in ottawa who are concerned that Windmill Development is proceeding with its massive Zibi condo, office and retail project on the islands around Chaudiere Falls without the consent of Algonquin Indigenous groups who have held that the Falls and Islands have been a sacred meeting place for thousands of years.

Student Mental Health Alliance Collective

SMHAC is an advocacy group out of the Student Alliance for Mental Health (SAMH). Our mission is to represent and advocate on behalf of students to improve mental health at a systematic and service provision level at carleton and within the community.

Students Against Israeli Apartheid-Carleton

SAIA supports the July 2005 call from over 170 Palestinian organizations for a global campaign of boycotts, divestment and sanctions against Israel until it meets its obligation to recognize the Palestinian people's inalienable right to self-determination and fully complies with the precepts of international law. We believe that justice will not be achieved without equal rights for everyone in the area of historic Palestine, regardless of religion, ethnicity or nationality.

The Council of Canadians - Carleton University Chapter

The Council of Canadians engages students with issues of social justice, climate justice and water sovereignty while drawing on the work of other Council of Candian chapters.

The Leveller

CAMPUS - COMMUNITY - CULTURE

The Leveller is a publication covering news, current events, and culture in the Ottawa/ Gatineau region and, to a lesser extent, the wider world. It is intended to provide readers with a lively portrait of their campus and community, and of the events that give it meaning. It is also intended to be a forum for provocative editorializing and lively debate on issues of concern to post-secondary students, staff, faculty, as well as Ottawa residents.
